

Desintegration of the European Union

SUMMARY

1. Beginning of the European-Union
2. Economic aspects
3. A divided Europe
4. Conclusion

Historical Context of the European Union

- Created in post-war context
- Maintaining stable military and political situation
- Promote peace, values, and well being of its people

- 1951 : CECA
- 1957 : CEE
- 1985 : Schengen
- 1992 : Maastricht
- 2007 : Lisbonne

Economic aspect

- Cannot change the exchange rate
- have to respect European regulation

Brexit consequences

- End of free movement of goods, people, services and capital
- Raising of trade barriers
- Economic uncertainties
- Impact of the image of the EU

Consequences of the migration crisis

- Strong diplomatic tensions
- Progressions of nationalists currents
- Border closures
- Unequal distribution of migrants across countries

